ALBERT A. TOWNE

and for three years a member of the school board.

Mr. Towne and family returned to Norway in 1919, where he continued to engage in the business of a farmer.

Born on a farm in Norway, July 17, 1878, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Pierce Towne, he early learned the science of soil cultivation and farm management, while wrestling with the three R's at the local schoolhouse.

He was graduated from Norway High School in 1896 and completed a course of three years at Colby College. After teaching three years in the Norway public schools, he advanced to high school work as principal of the following institutions: Walden High School, two years; Lee Normal Academy, two years; Buckfield High School, one year; Ashland High School, six years.

Deciding on a business career, Mr. Towne resigned as teacher and bought a public garage and auto salesroom at Ashland. During five years he built a successful business and won the confidence of the Ashland people, shown by a term of two years on the board of selectmen.

Mr. Towne is a teacher in the village schools where their three children attend. The family reside in the village during the winter and Bert spends the time logging, breaking down trucks, keeping tabs on school affairs and on rare occasions joins the mystic circle at the Wreny Club.

Mr. Towne is a member of the Norway and Ashland churches.

His wife, Mrs. Mary Towne, is a member of the Norway church.

They have three children: Fred, Bert and Helen.

BASKET BALL

Norway High 22; Gould's 20

One of the closest games for the season at the Norway High school gym, was offered Friday evening when the Norway school boys defeated Gould's Academy with a margin of one basket.

Both outfits played light with plenty of keen stuff for the thriller. At no time were the teams unhooked from the clutch which they fell almost on the first whistle. Summary:

Colleagues 42; Norway A. C. 24

Dr. Swett's gallery of local basketball stars fell by the edge of the sword when the Colleagues played the works at Norway Opera House, Wednesday evening.

Norway opened with a mighty inrush and slipped over four baskets in rapid succession. In the meantime the visitors bunched at the hoop and looked like a second hand store. As the game progressed, the Colleagues learned to negotiate the floor and fixed the points of the compass.

Norway led 12-10 at the end of the first half. The last half was another story. The Colleagues played with the vigor and regular basketball. Norway was not wholly successful in blocking the visitors passing stuff and failed to locate the hole in the ring on a large percentage of shots. The Colleagues also had blimped staggers at the hoop but passed up enough to win.

Not one foul was called and the game was a rough and ready scramble under the professional's rule

George W. Devine

George W. Devine passed away, Monday morning, Feb. 23, after a long period of failing health. He was the son of the late John and Sarah Jenkins Devine and was born in Norway, Sept. 4, 1875. He was the youngest of two children but to his wife, Mrs. Devine. A sister, Nellie, died in girlhood.

Mr. Devine was twice married. His first wife, Miss Louise Stearns of Norway, a sister of Judge A. E. Stearns, of Rumford, died two years after their marriage. His second wife, Ruth, daughter of Roswell Frost of Norway, survives him.

Twin daughters were born of this union, Louise A., who survives, and Eleanor, who died at a few months of age. Besides his wife, daughter and aged mother, an aunt and several cousins survive, who reside in Massachusetts.

He was educated in the public schools of Norway. He attended the Norway High school but during the final weeks of his Senior year, he left to accept a good position in the F. H. Noyes Co., where he remained twenty-four years. The last sixteen years he was a member of the firm of F. H. Noyes Co., which consisted of F. H. Noyes, of Devine and Fred H. Pike. Nearly eight years ago he purchased the general merchandise business of L. H. Penley where he continued until a year ago last fall, when he retired from business and later in the fall, with his wife and daughter, motored to St. Petersburg, Fla., where they spent the winter, returning in the spring. He found much pleasure in the life, making for his flowers and garden and motoring with his family.

He continued to grow ill, and after consulting several specialists, an operation was advised. He returned from the hospital knowing he had an incurable illness. During the months of suffering he has shown wonderful patience, trust and faith. Desiring much to live for his family, yet he made no arrangements with remarkable courage.

In business life he was honorable, courteous and obliging and consequently made a large financial success, as well as gaining a large circle of friends. In social life he was genial and optimistic, and therefore a pleasing companion. But most of all he was devoted to his home and family, and only those who have been permitted to catch a glimpse of the inner circle can imagine the devotion he gave to those who were near and dear.

In his religious life he was affiliated with the Universalist church, although regarding very highly the Congregational church. In politics he was a Republican. He belonged to Oxford Lodge, F. & A. M., of Oxford, the Arch Chapter, Oxford Council and Ark Mariners, Norway.

Mrs. Devine has cared for him most devotedly until stricken with pneumonia from which she is now recovering.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at the Universalist church. Rev. Eleanor Forbes officiated assisted by Rev. E. H. Stover of the Federated church, the Rev. E. C. Smith, E. J. Mann, P. H. Penley and H. H. Wardwell. The flowers were profuse and beautiful.

The remains were placed in the receiving tomb and will be taken to Norway for interment in the family lot.

Those who came from out of town to attend the funeral were Judge and Mrs. A. E. Stearns, Rumford, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McManey, Westbrook, Mass., Miss Eleanor Devine, Beverly, Mass., Jasper W. Whether you are lucky (or unlucky) enough to be filling out a small income blank—or if you are blessed (or cursed) with riches and a surtax—you are welcome here.

This isn't a rich man's store by a long shot—it isn't a cheap store either—but it's the type of store that caters to the man who makes $1500 a year or $1500 a minute—and we are the kind of people who can greet a Mr. "Smith" just as pleasantly as we would say, "Good Morning, Mr. Rockefeller."

The size of your income makes no difference to us—but the size of our Values should make a big difference to you.
